Comprehensive Scan

The first scan included in a client's booking process is our Comprehensive Scan. This scan provides a full picture of energetic dysfunction in the body and allows us to dive deep into resonating toxins, pathogens, imbalances, and deficiencies. It provides a bio-individual protocol to determine how to bring the body back into balance through supplements or supportive emotional and lifestyle therapies.

What's Included

- Bodily systems or organs under stress and in need of support
- Resonating toxins and pathogens including parasites, heavy metals, viruses, bacterias, chemicals, and other environmental toxins
- Nutritional deficiencies including vitamins, minerals, amino acids, enzymes, fatty acids, and neurotransmitters
- Hormone imbalances
- Food & environmental sensitivities from over 800 items
- Dental disturbances including cavities, decay, toxicities, infections, bite irregularities, and their associated vertebrae, organs, and glands
- Vertebral disturbances including misalignments and their associated organs and glands
- Emotional disturbances including specific feelings or emotions creating stress
- Balancing remedies to bring your body back into balance including homeopathy, herbal or nutritional supplementation, resonating emotional affirmations, and/or complementary therapies (i.e. acupuncture, chiropractic care, etc.)
